About The Turbulence of Velocity Paintball Team

During the 2006 season, Turbulence of Velocity will be fielding two teams, one at the NPPL Super 7 Series D3 level, and one at the XPSL D5 level. The Turbulence of Velocity Paintball Team recently won the overall series championship for the 2004 XPSL Rookie Division. Velocity Paintball Park is a primary sponsor of The Turbulence of Velocity Paintball Team. Dye Precision, WPN Paintballs, and San Diego Web Designs also provide invaluable support to The Turbulence of Velocity Paintball Team.

Team Objective

Our primary objective is to positively promote the sport of paintball to new and experienced players. As a team, our goal is to constantly improve and establish The Turbulence of Velocity Paintball Team as one of the best teams in each tournament series division in which we compete. We are committed to practicing 2-3 times per week, as well as consistently participating in National and local tournaments. We hope to serve as a team that players and fans view as a positive influence to the sport, as well as a team for younger and newer players to look up to. We pride ourselves on our ability to establish solid and positive relationships with other teams and individual players through excellent on- and off-field etiquette. The Turbulence of Velocity Paintball Team is committed to performing well, upholding a good reputation, and promoting our sponsors.

Turbulent Expectations

The individual players on The Turbulence of Velocity Paintball Team come from diversified backgrounds and professions, including Business Owners, Retail Managers, Home & Building Improvement Professionals, Students, and Internet Marketers. Professionalism resides in each of us, which we illustrate it on a daily basis both in our social and work lives, and on the paintball field. With that in mind, we are committed to portraying a positive image for our sponsors and ourselves.
